21-22

1. The first part of the text discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice to ensure transparency and accountability. This practice is crucial for both internal management and external audits.

2. The second part of the text focuses on the role of technology in modern accounting. It highlights how software solutions can streamline data entry, reduce errors, and provide real-time insights into financial performance. However, it also notes the need for robust security measures to protect sensitive financial information from cyber threats.

3. The final part of the text concludes by reiterating the importance of ethical conduct in the accounting profession. It stresses that accountants must adhere to strict standards of integrity and objectivity, ensuring that their work serves the best interests of their clients and the public.
